CMDRA Returns to Ashcroft BC for Round 4

The Canadian Motorcycle Drag Racing Association returns to the Eagle Motorplex in Ashcroft, British Columbia on July 20th and 21st for the Hi Desert Nitro Nationals. The "All Bike" drag racing event will feature all makes and classes of motorcycles including the Screamin' Eagle Top Fuel and V-Rod Destroyer Series. As an added bonus, on Friday July 19th, the CMDRA will once again be hosting a burnout contest and Kick-Off party on the main street of Sicamous British Columbia as part of the 24th annual Summer Stomp festivities.

Racing action gets underway at 9 am on Saturday morning with the free Trev Deeley Drag Racing School and wraps up with the final elimination rounds Sunday afternoon.

As always, for the 2013 season, the CMDRA is providing live up to the minute results for all of its events at: www.cmdra.com/2013-live-race-results/
